PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

With more than 15 years of experience in project management, planning & zoning, economic development, and regulatory assistance, King will provide his clients expertise in tenant representation, owner representation, incentive procurement, zoning compliance assistance and property management.

Brad joined Resource (RCRE) after serving as an associate with Indianapolis-based commercial real estate company Dury Investment Group. He has worked with the City of Indianapolis, the Indianapolis Economic Development Corporation (IEDC), and Indy Partnership. As Project Manager, Marketing Manager and finally Director of Motorsports and Sports Initiatives for the IEDC and Indy Partnership, King helped to create and implement a regional approach to economic development, fostering some of the highest job creation and retention in the City's recent history.

Brad compliments RCRE well by utilizing his experience in a range of services including; market research, economic development incentive opportunities, creating marketing plans, and assisting client relocations, acquisitions, and lease negotiations.

It is Brad's goal to fully understand, from start to finish, what factors are most important to clients as they continue to grow and expand their business, and to completely understand their specific real estate requirements, business needs, goals and objectives.

EDUCATION

Mr. King earned a B.A. in Professional Writing and concentrations in Management and Communications from Purdue University.
